MEASURES TAKEN BY THE COMMITTEE FOR ENSURING THE SAFETY OF WOMEN

The committee is vigilant on any acts accounting to sexual harassment.

The students were informed about existence of the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC), and the members of the Committee.

Organized training programme for students, faculties and non-teaching staff and other employees.

Ethics for research supervisors are circulated.

Students and research scholars are not allowed to work late in the library, laboratories and in the research laboratories.

Placed awareness posters, Complaint Box, Sexual Harassment Act and punishments details in prominent places.

To ensure safety, adequate lighting facilities are provided

Installed CCTV Cameras at all vital points.

Women security staff is employed.

Ethics for Research Supervisor:

(UGC-SAKSHAM-Measures for Ensuring the Safety of Women in HEI)

The perspective that should guide ethics for research supervision is to maintain clear norms in the relationship such that neither is the student violated nor does her research suffer.

Time spent with supervisors must be professionally oriented and not be personal.

Unnecessary requests to spend time with supervisors should be avoided.

All meetings should be during office hours in office space.

Any complaint made by a student about a supervisor must be forwarded to the Sexual Harassment committee and officially acknowledged.

Following this the supervisor must be suspended and another faculty member assigned in consultation with the student.
